We do not find any ground to interfere with this interim order. However, we are informed that this Court has already directed for the disposal of the writ petition itself within a specified period by means of order dated 18th August,1999 in SLP(C) No. 11359/99.

In view of the said order, we hope and trust that the High Court will dispose of the matter, if not already disposed of, within a period of three months from today.

With the said observation the Special Leave Petition is disposed of.
