UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

Nobody is present for the appellant, since notice upon appellant for alternative arrangement could not be served, postal remark says that "left returned to sender". It is the basic duty of the litigant to disclose their better and correct address both at the time of filing any litigation and as and when address is changed pending litigation. If proper address is not disclosed by the litigant before the Court, now it would not be possible for the Court to serve them.
