It is claimed that the petitioner is an old man of about seven eight years of age and in view of the order dated 22nd January, 2004, enhanced compensation is not being paid to him despite the earlier orders.
The petitioner may move requisite application before the High Court for expeditious disposal of the prayer for payment of enhanced compensation to him. We have no doubt that, if so moved, the application will be decided expeditiously.
