O R D E R

Leave granted.

Heard learned counsel appearing on either side.

We have perused the orders passed by the Labour Court and also of the High Court. The appellants have not established that they have worked for 240 days continuously in a calendar year. In the absence of establishing the said factor, the appellants, in our opinion, are not entitled for any relief in this Court.

The Civil Appeal is accordingly dismissed with no orders as to costs.
