Heard.

No merit.

The special leave petition is dismissed.

At this stage, learned senior counsel for the petitioners prays that one year's time may be given to vacate and deliver the vacant possession of the premises to the respondents-landlord. Learned counsel representing the respondents states that six months time may be granted. Having due regard to the facts of the case, we think it just and appropriate to grant time to the petitioners to vacate and deliver the vacant possession of the premises to the respondents-landlord on or before 31st March, 2004, subject to the petitioners filing usual undertaking within a period of four weeks from today.
