Leave granted.

The case against the appellants is that in the year 1994-95, huge amounts were embezzled fraudulently on passing of LTC claims. The FIR was registered in the year 2001. The appellants are in custody of more than five months. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, we are of the opinion that the appellants deserve to be released on bail. We order accordingly. The appellants be released on furnishing of bail bonds to the satisfaction of the Special Judge, CBI, Ranchi. The appeals are disposed of.

In case of any interference by the appellants with the witnesses would entitle to respondent to apply for cancellation of the bail.
