Having perused the report of the CBI which was placed in the Court in a sealed cover, at this stage, we do not think it worthwhile to interfere with the impugned order of the High Court and the investigation as an agency has already devoted a substantial time and has investigated into the complaint and therefore the future course of action must be occasioned pursuant to the result of the CBI. This petition stands rejected. The report of the CBI produced in the Court is handed over to the counsel for the C.B.I.
