ORDER

It is a matter of regret that public sector insurance companies are coming up to this Court even in matters where the compensation awarded to the injured-claimant is only a paltry sum of Rs.10,000/-. We hope that the authorities shall in future desist from filing such applications. The special leave petitions are dismissed with the aforementioned observation.

Let a copy of this order be sent to the Chairman/Managing Director of the New India Assurance Company Ltd. for information and necessary action.
