.SP2

Delay condoned.

The only point urged before us now is that the wife has married for a second time and, therefore, she is not entitled for any maintenance. But, this question has not been raised before the High Court or the Courts below. It would be appropriate for the petitioner to work out his rights in relation to that aspect of the matter, if any, before an appropriate Forum.

Subject to what is stated above, this petition is dismissed.
