UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

We find from the Order of the High Court that the petitioner before us has been permitted to intervene in the proceeding before it. Counsel for the petitioner states that as an intervenor he may not be permitted to produce the G.O. in question. Counsel for the respondent states that he will have no objection to the G.O. being produced before the High Court and to the High Court considering the same, but he also clarified that so far as he is concerned, the matter has attained finality as against him. However, we find that since the High Court has permitted the petitioner to intervene, it may have no objection to consider the relevant G.O. if produced before it. Since the matter has attained finality as against the respondent herein, it is not necessary to implead him as a party.

I.A.No. 1 is accordingly, disposed of.
