UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

We are not inclined to interfere with the impugned orders. Accordingly, the Special Leave Petitions are dismissed. However, the petitioners would be at liberty to move a regular bail application before the concerned Magistrate. If such an application is filed, the concerned Magistrate shall consider the same in accordance with law as expeditiously as possible. However, we make it clear that the observations, if any, made by the High Court in its impugned orders shall not have any persuasive effect when the matter is finally considered by the concerned Magistrate.
