We have heard the learned counsel for the parties.

The grievance of the petitioner seems to be that respondent has not complied with the order made by the Tribunal on 24.8.99 fully, whereas on behalf of the respondents it is contended that they have complied with the order by giving full effect to the same. We do not think the dispute can be resolved in this matter arising out of a contempt petition.

Therefore, this Special Leave Petition is disposed of leaving liberty to the petitioner to agitate his grievance by way of separate proceedings if he so desires.
