The petitioner, who is complainant in the case, seeks cancellation of the order of suspension of sentence passed under Section 389 of the Code of Criminal Procedure dated 15th January, 2004. The grounds on which cancellation of order is sought for, are referable to dates subsequent to 15th January, 2004. The complainant is at liberty to move the High Court for cancellation of the order releasing the accused on bail pointing out the circumstances on which the order of bail deserves to be recalled or cancelled. In view of that liberty being available to the complainant, the learned counsel seeks to withdraw this special leave petition and to move to the High Court.
