ORDER

We are not inclined to entertain the special leave petition, which has been filed against an interlocutory order. The same is accordingly dismissed. However, from the impugned order, it appears that the petition was peremptorily fixed for admission for final disposal on 06/04/2009 before the appropriate Bench.

Having regard to the said order, we request the High Court to hear out the pending writ petition with utmost expedition, but positively within the month of April, 2009.
