UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following

There is enormous delay of 38 years, 4 months and 13 days. Learned counsel for the petitioner argues that the delay is required to be condoned as the petitioner happens to be a State and also as there is a jurisdictional error. We are not inclined to accept this argument. There cannot be two yard-sticks - one for the State and the other for the citizens.

We, therefore, do not find any merit in these petitions. The special leave petitions are, accordingly, dismissed.
