For Respondent(s)

UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

1. Taken on Board.
2. Having considered the submissions made on behalf of the petitioners, we are not inclined to interfere with the judgment and order impugned, whereby the petitioners' prayer for quashing of the charges against them was dismissed. However, while dismissing the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the High Court granted leave to the petitioners to surrender before the lower court and to apply for bail within a period of 30 days. Protection was given for the said period.
3. On behalf of the petitioners, it has been submitted that they would deposit the amount involved and on such deposit, the case of the petitioners could be considered for continuance of the protection given.
4. Since, we are not entertaining the Special Leave Petition, we grant liberty to the petitioners to make the same submissions before the courts below and the same may be taken into consideration while considering the petitioners' prayer for grant of bail in terms of the order impugned.
5. We also indicate that, if possible, the petitioners' prayer for grant of bail may be taken up on the same day on which such application is filed.
6. The Special Leave Petition is dismissed, with the aforesaid observations.
