Though the petitioner sought relief of having respondent nos.6 to 8 served by substituted service, he took no steps and now prays that they may be deleted as he does not want to press the S.L.P. against them. They are therefore deleted at the risk of the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the respondent no.9 submits that in the absence of respondent nos.6 to 8 the S.L.P. does not survive against his client and other respondents.
List for final disposal in the month of April, 2002.
