IN THE SUPREME COURT OF INDIA
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CIVIL APPEAL NO. 2105 OF 2007
(arising out of SLP(C) No. 6769 of 2007)

Balasaheb Chandrarao More & Ors.

.. Appellant(s)

Versus

Suresh Kisanrao Porje & Ors.

.. Respondent(s)

O R D E R

Leave granted.

This appeal is directed against the interim order passed by the High Court. By the interim order, the Division Bench of the High Court has inter alia stated as under:

" ...The only ad-interim relief that can be granted at this stage is that all promotions will be subject to the final order in the matter.

We further make it clear that those who are in service, their services should not be terminated as those holding posts should not be reverted, pending the hearing and final disposal of the matter. All further promotions shall be in terms of the matter of the Court."

The learned counsel for the respondents fairly stated that he has no objection if in the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to set aside the order by requesting the High Court to dispose of the matter finally.

In the facts and circumstances in our opinion, ends of justice would be met if we set aside the interim order passed by the High Court. We request the High Court to take up the matter for final disposal in view of the fact that the question relates to seniority as also to further promotion of several employees. The High Court will decide the matter expeditiously, preferably within three months. Meanwhile, status quo as of today shall be maintained and nobody shall be promoted. All contentions of all parties are kept open.

The appeal is disposed of accordingly. There shall be no order as to costs.
