of interlocutory determination by the High Court, we do not wish to interfere with the same.

We are informed by the counsel that two Appeals

From Order Nos. 377/2010 and 378/2010 are still pending with the High Court. In view of the circumstances, we request the High Court to expedite the hearing of these matters and dispose of them as early as possible preferably by 31st December, 2011.

Learned counsel appearing for the parties submit that their respective clients will extend their cooperation to the High Court for speedy disposal without requesting for adjournments.

However, in the meanwhile, the parties are directed to maintain status quo as it is obtaining today.

We make it clear that we have not gone through the merits of the cases and the High Court shall consider the matters on their own merits without construing anything said in this order as an expression of opinion on the merits of those cases before the High Court.

The special leave petitions are accordingly disposed of.
