Reason:

We have heard learned senior counsel for the petitioner(s) at a considerable length. We do not find any adverse order(s) passed by the High Court in relation to prayer for appointment of an Administrator/Oath Commissioner for the purpose of making inventories. It seems that an application to this effect is still pending consideration before the High Court.

3. That being so, we dispose of these Special Leave Petitions with liberty to the petitioner(s) to plead the cause of urgency before the High Court and seek an appropriate interim protection with reference to the pending prayers.

4. It is clarified that the observations made hereinabove and/or the order that may be passed by the High Court shall be without prejudice to the outcome of the issue re: maintainability of the suit.

5. Pending application(s), if any, shall stand closed.
