APPELLANT (S)

VERSUS

DEVI RAI ALIAS SHAILENDRA RAI & ORS.

RESPONDENT(S)

O R D E R

Leave granted.

Learned counsel for the appellant submits that the High Court grossly erred in dismissing the appeal without any independent consideration of the materials and evidence, by only extracting portions of the trial court order.

Learned counsel for the respondents submits that the present appeal arises from a State appeal before the High Court. However, it is acknowledged that the appeal filed by the appellant is still pending before the High court.

In the circumstances, we are satisfied to set aside the impugned order and remand the matter to the High Court to take up both the appeals for consideration and dispose it of by a reasoned order.

The appeal stands disposed of with the aforesaid order.
