Permission sought for is granted. The Special Leave

Reason:

Petitions are disposed of as withdrawn with liberty to the petitioner(s) to file appropriate Review Petitions before the High Court.

If, for any reason, the petitioner(s) fails before the Review Court, we grant permission to the petitioner(s) to approach this Court once over again to question the correctness or otherwise of the main order as well as the Review order of the High Court.

We clarify that we have not expressed any opinion on the submission so made by the learned Additional Solicitor General for the petitioner(s).
