CRIMINAL APPEAL NO. OF 2010
(Arising out of SLP(CrI.) No.3078/10)

MOHAMMED EASAN @ HASAN Appellant (s)

VERSUS

INSPECTOR OF POLICE, CHENNAI Respondent(s)

O R D E R

Leave granted.

This appeal arises out of the order passed by the Madras High Court on 11th February, 2010, in CrI.

Original Petition No. 2134/10, rejecting the appellant's prayer for grant of bail mainly on the ground that it had been brought to its notice that all the witnesses had been examined, except the Investigating Officer. It is on such consideration that the High Court held that such being the position, there was no need to give directions to expedite the trial.

However, after the said order was passed, an application was made on behalf of the prosecution under 311 Cr.P.C., which was allowed, whereby 23 other witnesses are to be examined on behalf of the prosecution. The appellant has already spent eight years in custody during trial.

How long the examination of the other 23 witnesses will take, is anybody's guess.

Accordingly, we allow the appeal and direct that the appellant be released on bail to the satisfaction of the trial court on such terms and conditions as may be felt necessary to ensure that the appellant has no opportunity of absconding. We have been shown the order passed by the High Court in the case of P. Balakrishna, one of the co-accused. Similar terms may also be imposed while granting bail to the appellant herein.

Let a copy of the order passed by the High Court granting bail to P. Balakrishnan be kept on record.

The appeal is accordingly allowed.
