The implementation of order dated 27/5/1993 being the subject matter and that order having become final, the decision in Godavraman's case will be of no assistance. That@@ apart, it has been averred in the counter affidavit that the land in question is a barren land without having any tree thereon. The dispute seems to be a dispute between the two departments of the government, namely, Colonization Department and Forest Department. We really deprecate the inter se dispute between the two departments of the government coming to Court. This special leave petition is dismissed accordingly.
