Delay condoned.

During the course of arguments, learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that certain observations have been made by the High Court which were not warranted and are against the record. If that be so, it is for the petitioners to approach the High Court by filing a suitable application.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties, we are not inclined to interfere under Article 136 of the Constitution of India. The special leave petition is, accordingly, dismissed.

Pending applications, if any, stand disposed of accordingly.
