ORDER

Learned counsel appearing for the respondents, has circulated a letter for adjournment of the case. However, the counsel appearing for the petitioner in this contempt petition, submits that respondents have already vacated the premises in question on 10th March 2021 and there are no rental arrears. While it is true that the respondents have not filed Affidavit of Undertaking as per the directions issued by this Court, at the same time, having regard to the fact that respondents have already vacated the premises we are of the view that, it is not a fit case to proceed further under provisions of Contempt of Courts Act. The contempt petition is accordingly closed.
