The appellant has preferred this appeal on b dissatisfied with the meagre enhancement in the amount of compensation made by the High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh by order dated 22.01.2014 in FAO No.1930 of 1999.

The accident occurred in July, 1996, in which husband of first petitioner, Des Raj, died after being hit by the vehicle belonging to the State of Haryana and driven rashly and negligently by respondent no.1. The Motor Accident Claims Tribunal vide order dated 15.11.1997 aw compensation of Rs.2,80,000/- along with interest at 12 per cent per annum. The deceased who was 50 years at the time of accident, was taken as agriculturist by profession and his income was said to be Rs.2,500/- per month. Being aggrieved, the appellant appealed in the High Court while the matter was compensation at Rs.4,21,200/-. The High Court vide impugned judgment dated 22.01.2014 held that the appellants are also entitled to compensation under the head of loss of consortium at Rs.15,000/-, loss of estate at Rs.10,000/- and loss of love and care of children at Rs.25,000/-. The compensation was enhanced to Rs.4,71,200/-.

We have heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the record. We are of the view that the High Court ought to have granted little more amount towards the loss of consortium and loss of estate apart from the amount towards the loss of love and care of both the children. We accordingly increase the compensation with respect to loss of love and care of both the children @ Rs.50,000/- per child and loss of estate to Rs.25,000/-. Thereby, for the loss suffered by the appellant, they are entitled for further amount of Rs.1 lakh in lumpsum and thus, the amount is enhanced to Rs.5,71,200/-. The order dated 22.01.2014 passed by the High Court stands modified to the extent as mentioned above.

The appeal stands disposed of, accordingly.
