UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

We have heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

By our order dated 5th August, 2005 we directed the counsel for the petitioner to inform us about the latest position of the trial. Since the High Court had observed in the impugned order that the trial was expected to be concluded within four months, we had requested counsel for the petitioner to give us necessary information.

Counsel for the petitioner informs us that apart from the petitioner, there are several other accused whose trial has also been amalgamated with the trial of the petitioner, therefore, it will take considerable time before the trial is concluded.

This is a development which has taken place after the High Court had passed the impugned order rejecting the bail application of the petitioner. In these circumstances, we permit the petitioner to move the High Court for grant of bail bringing to the notice of the High Court all the necessary facts and the latest developments that have taken place since. With these observations, the special leave petition is disposed of.
