After a full length agreement of this case the parties sought adjournment to settle the matter among themselves. Accordingly the case was adjourned.

Today a Memorandum of Settlement is placed before us. We record this Memorandum signed by the parties and their counsel and dispose of the appeal in terms thereof.

However, as the case has been pending since 1975 and a quarter of a century has passed, we direct the Consolidation Officer to demarcate the land and apportion the same in the ratio indicated in the settlement, within a period of six months from today.

The appeal is accordingly disposed of. No costs.
