UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following
OR D E R

We are not inclined to entertain the Special Leave Petition having particular regard to the observations made by the High Court that the documents sought for by the petitioner, do not exist. However, the petitioner may, if so advised, apply for production of the records in the pending writ petition filed by him complaining of the fact that while granting pensiona ry benefits, Central Pension Rules have not been followed.

The Special Leave Petition is, accordingly, dismissed.
