Leave granted.

After hearing the counsel for the parties, we are of the opinion that this is not a fit case where proceedings for contempt should have been initiated, especially in view of the fact that against the judgment which was delivered against the appellant an appeal had been filed and neither the appeal nor even the stay application has been decided. In view of the pendency of the said stay application, the contempt proceedings are ordered to be withdrawn. If the stay application is dismissed, it would then be open to the respondents to take further action. The High Court should dispose of the stay application as expeditiously as possible and without granting any further adjournment.

The appeal is disposed of.
