Delay in filing counter affidavit is condoned.

It is submitted by the learned counsel for the the further payment of the amount due in view of her son having met with an accident. He prays for last opportunity to make good the payment as per the decree.

In view of the aforesaid submission, we permit the petitioner to make the payment as per the decree within a period of two months from today, namely, on or before 9th satisfied and the sale would then, in that event, be regarded as having been set aside, but in the event of payment not being made or if there being any shortfall in payment, this
