Heard.

Mr. Jain, the learned senior counsel in support of the application states that the application has been filed apprehending that the party may cause some trouble in future and the statement was made by the counsel having failed in attempt to get sufficient instructions from the party. We find no lacuna on the part of the counsel in making the statement on the basis of which the order had been passed and, therefore, the grievance is unfounded. We are not inclined to entertain this application. It is accordingly dismissed.
