Having heard learned counsel at length, we are not inclined to interfere in the orders under challenge. However, we direct that the rights of the parties under the condition on which the interim order was extended by the High Court on June 4, 2001 and by this Court on July 18, 2001 and thereafter shall abide the result of the suit pending in the trial court and be worked out after the disposal of the suit. The trial court shall decide the suit within three months from today.

Application for intervention is dismissed.

The special leave petitions are, accordingly, dismissed.
