Delay condoned.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the Apartment of which the prosecution has been made did not belong to the first respondent company, instead of it was allotted to the petitioner by the Housing Board. According to the learned counsel, petitioner has produced documents to show the same before the High Court. He seeks some time to produce the copy of the application filed before the High Court as per which he requested for permission to adduce further evidence in the case.

In the meanwhile issue notice to first respondent. No notice need be sent to the second respondent.

The warrant of arrest will remain stayed for a period of one month from today.
