This special leave petition is directed against the order of the High Court dated 18.6.2003 whereby the High Court has issued notice returnable on 14.8.2003 and not allowed any interim relief in the interregnum. The petitioners cannot be said to be aggrieved by the impugned order inasmuch as anything that is done during the pendency of the petition in the High Court shall be subject to the decision or order of the High Court and the care of the petitioners' interest can be taken on the appointed date of hearing. That being the position, no case is made out for interference with the impugned order. The special leave petition is dismissed.
