O R D E R

At the outset, Mr. R. Venkataramani, learned Attorney General of India submitted that he would be appearing on behalf of the alleged contemnor and fairly submitted that some time be given to him so that he can take personal stalk of the situation and also come up with a view on the situation.

2. On our categorical query to him with regard to the nature and scope of the present proceedings, we have been assured by the learned AGI that he is very conscious of the fact that this is a contempt proceeding and the order of the Court has to be fully complied with.

3. In view of the time sought, the matter be listed on 22.05.2026.
