.SP2

There is an inordinate delay on the part of the petitioner in approaching this Court. It appears that even in approaching the Division Bench in appeal there was delay of 250 days which the Division Bench did not condone. Notwithstanding the same instead of being permitted the petitioner, there has been further delay of 280 days for which no explanation has been offered to condone the same. Application for condonation of delay stands rejected. The SLP stands dismissed.
