UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following ORDER

In this case, an important question of law arises as to whether the petitioner is a State under Article 12 of the Constitution. However, on the merits of the case, we find that the High Court has merely directed the petitioner to consider the representation of the respondent. Therefore, we express no opinion on the question as to whether the petitioner is a State under Article 12 of the Constitution. That question is expressly kept open. However, on the merits of the case, the Special Leave Petition is dismissed.
