Heard learned counsel for the parties.

In the present case the possession of the suit property has already been handed over in the month of December 2000. In this view of the matter we do not think that this is a fit case for proceeding further in the contempt petition. If the tenant has not paid the arrears of rent, as contended by learned counsel for the petitioner, it would be open to the petitioner to take appropriate execution proceedings. With these observations this contempt ptition is disposed of.
