Though the legality of the order of transfer is under challenge in this appeal, it is stated to us by Mr. Nageswara Rao, the learned senior counsel appearing for the Company, that the concerned employee in the meantime has been terminated and he has also approached the High Court against the said order of termination. In that view of the matter, we do not think it appropriate to go into the question of the legality of the order of transfer and these appeals have become infructuous. They are accordingly dismissed.
