Mr. Shyam Divan, learned Senior Counsel appearing for the petitioner, submits that, as per his instructions, even the Indian Railways has moved the High Court for modification/clarification of the order impugned in this petition, because the proposed bridge is not feasible. If that be so, we defer hearing in this petition till the High Court passes any order on the motion made by the Indian Railways. However, we direct that till that date status quo in respect of the subject land shall be maintained.
