UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

The special leave petition is dismissed.

Six months' time is allowed to the petitioner to vacate the suit premises and handover possession thereof to the representative of the respondent. This would be subject to the filing of usual undertaking by the petitioner before this Court.

During the interregnum, the petitioner shall pay to the respondent an amount equivalent to monthly rent by way of damages. She is also restrained from inducting any person in the suit premises in any capacity whatsoever.

If the petitioner fails to file the required undertaking or violates the conditions enshrined in the undertaking and this order, then she shall make herself liable to be punished under the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971.

The Registry is directed to send a copy of this order to the respondent by registered post at the address mentioned in the memo of the special leave petition.
