ORDER

The petitioner (owner of the vehicle) has contended that he did not contest the proceedings before the Motor Accident Claims tribunal because he was under an impression that the insurance cover was available. However, when the petitioner herein came to know subsequently that the MACT had made an award directing the insurance company to make the payment of the compensation to the victim and then recover it from him, he filed this SLP. He also produced certain documents to show that the driver of the vehicle possessed valid driving licence. The insurance company may verify the genuineness of such licence and shall make its submissions.

List after six weeks.
