Delay condoned.

Ld. counsel submits that petitioners would deposit with the Tribunal the awarded sum for the purpose of disbursement to the claimants in accordance with the direction of the award. This would be done without prejudice to their contentions in their appeal. But the appeal will be heard only if the deposit of the entire amount is made by the petitioner. If he makes the deposit and request for an early hearing of the appeal, we direct the High Court to give the petitioner an early hearing of the matter. With these observations the SLP is dismissed.
