We heard Mr. Hardev Singh, learned senior counsel in extenso on the limited question as to the nature of the offence. The injuries noted by the doctor would reveal unmistakably that the assailants intended to cause the death of the victim. That is enough because it would fall within the first limb of Section 299 of the Indian Penal Code. It is murder. Hence, the conviction made by the High Court does not require any interference. Accordingly, Special Leave Petitions are dismissed.
