Though there may be some substance in the arguments advanced by Mr. Misra, learned senior counsel appearing for the appellant with regard to the interference of the Appellate Authority in the matter of quantum of punishment, but having regard to the subsequent facts as stated by Mr. E.C. Agrawala, learned counsel for the respondent, that the respondent, in the meantime, has been appointed as Principal of the school (though there is some controversy between the respective Managements), we do not think it appropriate to interfere with the impugned order in exercise of power under Article 136 of the Constitution of India. Be it stated, the respondent will not be entitled to any back-wages.

This appeal stands disposed of accordingly.
