UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

Heard learned counsel for the parties at length.

Earlier we had expressed our desire that the parties should try to amicably settle the dispute. The father is present in Court. He has stated before us, although not on oath, that he has made the Will without any duress or any inducement. Be that as it may, we will not express any opinion about the genuineness or otherwise of the Will on merits. We are not satisfied that the petitioner has raised any point of law which would require any interference by this Court.

The special leave petition is dismissed.
