Delay condoned.

We are dismayed to note that despite the fact that counsel for the petitioners had conceded before the Division Bench of the High Court that the issue stood concluded by an earlier decision of a Division Bench, against which even special leave petition had been dismissed, still the petitioners have chosen to file the present special leave petition. Therefore, while dismissing the special leave petition, we direct the Secretary, School Education, Government of Tamil Nadu to look into the matter and ensure that such frivolous special leave petitions are not filed in future.
