We do not find any merit in the contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner. Therefore, this petition is dismissed. The learned counsel then urged that petitioner is ready to pay the requisite duty and therefore time may be extended to deposit the same. Learned counsel appearing for the respondent has no objection and we also feel the request is reasonable. We therefore, grant six weeks time to the petitioner to deposit the requisite fee before the trial court, if the duty is not deposited within the stipulated period, the petitioner's suit shall stand dismissed.
